Family

Mom
    is talking
            with
                my relatives
                        on
                            the
                                phone.
They
    keep
        asking
            about
                me,
so,
    my
            gives
                me
                        phone

to
    talk
        to
            them,
                even
                    though
                                I
                                    don't want
                                            to.

"K, come here immediately. Your uncle wants to talk with you."

    Love
        my
            uncle,
                but
                        really
                            dislike

talking
to
him
or
anyone
else
from
my
relatives.
Not
because
I
don't
love
them,
always
ask
all
those
uncomfortable
questions.

"Tell me about that guy you like" asks my uncle.

There
isn't
someone
I
have
a
crush
on.
He
Just
Asks
Personal
awkward
questions,
otherwise
there
won't
be
anything
about.
